

Miss Agatha Berkhoel, who leaves during the week to spend a year in study in New York, was made the guest of honor last evening at a dinner at the University club, followed by a large reception and informal dance. The hosts at the dinner were four of the club members, Ledyard M. Bailey, George N. Lawrence, George Riter and Harold Siegel, and at the affair which followed the entire club were hosts.

The dinner was served in the private dining room, and covers were laid for fourteen. The decorations were all in pink hearts and pink roses, and the affair was ended with the presentation to Miss Berkhoel of a handsome chateleine watch with her program on it, the presentation being made by Mr. Bailey, who acted as toastmaster. Toasts were responded to by Mrs. Ira H. Lewis and Miss Agatha Berkhoel.

Mrs. Charles G. Plummer. The guests at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Bailey, Dr. and Mrs. Plummer, Mr. and Mrs. Ira H. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. John Weir, Mrs. Russell C. Woodruff, Miss Blanche Kimball, and Messrs. Lawrence, Riter and Siegel.

Later all the club members and their wives were present at the informal reception and dance, which was given in honor of the young musician whose services have been given to the club on many musical occasions. The large dining room was cleared for dancing, and the wall hung with college pennants and quantities of the holiday decorations. A bank of palms hid the orchestra which stationed in the north end of the hall, furnished a fine program of dance music.

The Misses Deane Bradley and Winnifred Brice entertained about eighteen of their girl friends yesterday morning at a skating party, followed by a luncheon at the Emery-Holmes. Red roses were used in the decorations, and the affair was chaperoned by Mrs. George T. Brice. The guests were the Misses Margaret Walker, Mercy Lewis, Lucile Clarke, Norinne Thompson, Aline McMillan, Virginia Beatty, Isabel Johnson, Ethel Tyree, Marjorie Dey, Josephine Weil, Bryan Houston, Marjorie Jacobs, Margaret Walden, Alberta Bradley and Dorothy Rookledge.

The largest affair given at the military post in some time was the bachelor's hop on Friday evening, which was a brilliant event attended by a large number of friends from town, as well as by the people of the garrison. The affair was managed entirely by the bachelor officers, who had asked Colonel and Mrs. Benjamin C. Lockwood, Major and Mrs. Allen M. Smith and Captain and Mrs. Mason to receive with them. Major Robert L. Hirst, the senior among the bachelor officers, also stood in line, while Captain Allen and Lieutenants Parker, Robinson and Campbell assisted in entertaining. A punch bowl decorated with the holiday colors was placed at one end of the hall, and instead of the usual buffet supper a more elaborate affair was given, small tables being brought in and laid for the guests. The hall was hung with flags and gay with the handsome dancing frocks of the younger people and the bright, full-dress uniforms of the officers.

The surprise of the week in matrimonial lines was the announcement of the engagement of Miss Elia Mantor to Robert W. Gordon. Their wedding will take place in Los Angeles early next April, the bride-elect and her mother and sister returned for that place today.

The incoming year was made welcome at the Van Cott home by an informal at-home for the younger set during the hours of the afternoon and evening. The Misses Pearl and Nora Van Cott, assisted by a number of their girl friends, received.

The Kimball home on South Main street was the scene also of a New Year's gathering, when Miss Blanche Kimball entertained a large number of her friends at an informal musicale.

A very decided hull is following the extremely gay holiday week which the young people spent recently. There seem to be few plans for the new year and, instead of the usual brilliant time preceding Lent, unless something turns up, there will be little to repent of when the season comes round.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Paul announce the engagement of their daughter, Alice, to George M. P. Dougall, formerly of Springville, but now of this city. The marriage will take place early in February, and the young people will make their home in Salt Lake.

"FOR THE STOMACH'S SAKE."

Treat the stomach right and health will be the inevitable result, for upon that organ falls the burden of caring for whatever food is taken into the body.

DRINK FISHER BEER

It is a food that is readily digested. It does not lie upon the stomach for hours undigested, as solid foods often do. Fisher Beer is pure. It is brewed from the choicest of its cereal ingredients, by a scientific, sterilizing process, in one of the most sanitary breweries in the United States. Therefore it is wholesome.

Drink Fisher Beer "for the stomach's sake." You will find it on sale at leading bars and cafes. When you want a case, order of any dealer or
